

Morse Street Parent-Teacher-Student Compact
Morse Street School
2016-2017

Teachers and parents will work together to support our students to become strong, independent thinkers and learners.

Parents will...	Teachers will...	Students will...
Be enthusiastic life-long learners	Be enthusiastic life-long learners	Be enthusiastic life-long learners
Support high expectations	Set high expectations and support each child in meeting those expectations	View themselves as learners capable of meeting high expectations
Prepare students for school programs and activities	Provide an environment conducive to learning	Be engaged, prepared, and ready to learn
Participate actively in school programs and processes	Facilitate communication between home and school	Seek support from parents and teachers
Realize the importance of school and provide for the basic needs of their child	Provide appropriate learning and assessment opportunities that encourage engagement and a joy of learning	Take responsibility for classroom participation, homework, and projects
Periodically set aside time to review programs and school activities with students and staff	Provide appropriate educational programs, meaningful homework, and challenging projects to enhance the educational experience	Participate actively in school programs and activities
Share and build mutual respect, self-confidence, and independence	Share and build mutual respect, self-confidence, and independence	Share and build mutual respect, self-confidence, and independence
Model and encourage a love of reading in a variety of ways	Model and encourage a love of reading in a variety of ways	Participate in, and build a love of reading through a variety of ways