RSU5 Board of Directors
2011-2012 Budget Priority Areas

The RSU5 Board of Directors established budget priority areas to guide development of the proposed 2011-2012 school budget. The following are the budget priorities included in the superintendent's recommended budget:

Priority Area: Capital Investments (Budget Increase of approximately $80,000)

Items include 2 Buses, Pick-up Truck with Dump, Roof Repair, Floor Replacements, Kitchen Equipment, MSS Office Expansion, CO Parking Lot Expansion, and other minor equipment items and improvements

Priority Area: Technology Investment (Budget Increase of approximately $95,000)

Items include computers for teachers grades PK-6; annual payment of high school student laptops; network replacements/upgrades; increased technician and data management time; and Student Information System (SIS)

Priority Area: Enrollments (Budget Increase of approximately $260,000)

Positions requiring new funds include 3.5 FTE positions at the high school including .5 guidance; .5 math strategist position for grades 7-12; and 1 Educational Technician position

Priority Area: Curriculum Materials (Budget Increase of approximately $85,000)

Items include Reading Assessments; Leveled Texts for grades PK-8; Literacy Support Instructional Materials; High School textbooks/curriculum materials for science and 2 new AP courses

Priority Area: Athletics (Budget Increase of approximately $25,000)

Items include phase-in plan for Booster sponsored teams and uniform replacement plan; also included in recommended budget is a Trainer and funds for middle school students to participate in sports offerings at either school

Priority Area: Time (Budget Increase of ???; Adding 2 days would be $100,000)

Increasing student instructional time will reduce professional work time. This area is unknown at this time but should be included for discussion purposes.
